Louisville Indoor Games

The Collins track & field team competed in the Louisville Indoor Games on Jan. 25th at the Norton SportsPlex. Sophomore Reece Delaney got the action started for the Titans. He shaved two seconds off Nolan Thomas' mile record which was set in 2020 by going 4:40.71.

Collins' Reece Delaney (142) broke the five-year-old school record in the mile.

On the girls' side, senior Grace Nelson got a personal record (PR) in the 800 with a 2:36.34. Collins junior Sophie Bolin ran the third fastest 2-mile time of her career (and fastest indoor) as she split consistent laps on the 200-meter track to finish in 12:19.77 which was good for seventh place.
